VIEW SOURCE

This fan-fiction article, Knight, was written by Witcher190 and Adalwulf of Aedirn. Please do not edit this fiction without the writers' permission.

This article is an expansion based on a canon element. For canon information on this topic, follow the link to The Witcher Wiki: Knight.

Knight (in form of title sir or sire) is a person granted an honorary title of knighthood by a monarch or other political leader for service to the Monarch or country, especially in a military capacity.

Knights also form army units and regiments in some states. For example, in Redania they are grouped into cavalry while in Temeria they prioritize fighting by foot. And then there is Toussaint, a land of love and wine within the Nilfgaardian Empire, that does not have an army and so relies on noble knights errant and the Ducal Guard.

But what about the knights that choose not to stay at court and stay with their ruler? They can become a knight for hire, mercenaries with a noble title, or as is happening more often, they may join some knightly order like the Order of the Flaming Rose.

Approximately by the middle of the 16th century, the occupation of knighthood would decline until it disappeared.

The absolute majority of knights are males, all though there are a few exceptions.
